

«Unione Nazionale Consumatori» in Rieti and Terni

The «Unione Nazionale Consumatori» is the first organisation of CONSUMERS in Italy. Founded in 1955 by Prof. Avv. Vincenzo Dona. The National Consumers Union is a nongovernment organisation.

The organisation aim is the consumers representation, It can propose laws, provide assistance, information, education and guidance activities with regard to consumers issues.

The organisation is part of the CNCU: the National Council of Consumers and Users at the Ministry of Economic Development.

It is an association of social advancement.

Every year we solve thousands of cases thanks to our experts.

The necessary founding to carry out our activities come from the registration fees paid by citizens and from National and European projects.

We are not a religious, cultural, social, green, tourist, sportive, or recreational association. However, the organisation oftentimes deals these themes always for the good of consumers.

Around 130 office branches are located across the country.
